SONG

TUNE—"My Bonnie."

Come, fellows, all join in the chorus,
And fill up your glasses anew,
To the banner that proudly waves o'er us,
The banner of Orange and Blue.

CHORUS.

Loudly, proudly, come on and let's join in a
song,
Rooting, yelling, cheering old Auburn along.

The Orange speaks life-long devotion,
And hearty devotion the Blue.
As broad and as deep as the ocean,
And like the deep ocean in hue.

CHORUS.

Then drink a long life to old Auburn,
The glorious Orange and Blue.
The emblem of all that is noble;
The earnest of all that is true.

CHORUS.

AUBURN DEFEATS FLORIDA

FLORIDA RECOVERS AUBURN'S FUMBLE AND SCORES BY SCORE OF 27-13

Drake Field, Oct. 12.—This afternoon Auburn defeated Florida in a game filled with thrilling surprises, by the score of 27-13. Although the light Florida aggregation was not booked to score, they were very fortunate in recovering two fumbles and running for touchdowns. At the opening of the third quarter, Newell, while making an end run, on Auburn's twenty-yard line, fumbled the ball and Tenney, of Florida recovered it and got away for a touchdown; a few minutes later in the same period Auburn again fumbled near their own goal, and Baker, of Florida recovered it and ran to touchdown. In the first quarter Florida was very strong on the defensive, and at times it was with difficulty that the Auburn backs could gain through the "little blue line," but in a few minutes the Tiger backs were getting together and at the close of the quarter the ball was in Auburn's possession, on Florida's ten-yard line. A few minutes after the opening of the second quarter Ressijac carried the ball over for a touchdown. Ressijac scored again before the close of this period. It was in the third quarter that Florida secured two fumbles and scored, thereby causing great excitement in the Auburn camp, even compelling Trainer Harry Kendall to resort to tears. But it was only a matter of a few minutes before "Father" Ressijac plunged over the goal line for a third touchdown. Auburn scored again, when in the fourth quarter, Capt. Major plowed twenty yards through the center of the line for a touchdown. Auburn played an offensive game throughout, Florida only gaining the required distance four times the entire game. Though Auburn's team work was not up to its standard, the individual work of Ressijac, on the offensive, was the one particular feature of the game, "Ressie" scoring three of the four touchdowns. "Red" Harris and Capt. Major were also very strong on the offensive. For the visitors, Pound's work on the defensive was of a very high quality; Tenney and Capt. Buie also played good games. Both teams were greatly handicapped by the intense heat.

Score by Quarters.

First Period—Florida kicked to Auburn, the ball crossing the goal line. Ball put on twenty-yard line in Auburn's possession. Ressijac plunges through line for twenty yards. Harris goes five through tackle. Newell gains fifteen yards around end. Auburn attempts a forward pass, but fails. Ressijac goes through line for fifteen yards. Major goes through center for ten yards. Ressijac gains a few yards through tackle, and the quarter closes with the ball in Auburn's possession on Florida's ten-yard line. Score 0-0.

Second Period—Harris goes outside of tackle for four yards. Ressijac plunges through line for a touchdown. Major kicks goal.

Florida kicks to Auburn. Ball out of bounds on Auburn's ten-yard line. Auburn gains a few yards through the line, but is compelled to kick. Florida's ball on their own thirty-five yard line. Taylor gains a few yards

AUBURN VS. CLEMSON

Drake Field, Oct. 19.—Today the Auburn Tigers meet Clemson for their annual battle. There was a greater part of the student body at the game with Florida—but there was not enough noise. So all the classes get together and have some real yelling. This is the last varsity game to be played on the campus, so everybody be out and give the team enough noise to last them until we can all hie to Atlanta with them for the battle with the "Yellow Jackets" of Tech. Game called at 3:30 o'clock. Admission 50c. All be out with plenty of noise.

around left end. Capt. Buie attempts a forward pass, but "Runt" Newell breaks it up. Florida kicks. Newell receives ball and returns it twenty yards. Ressijac goes through line for twenty yards; Major through center for fifteen yards; Harris around end for fifteen yards; Ressijac through tackle for twenty yards. With ball on Florida's twelve-yard line, Ressijac plunges through line for touchdown. Major kicks goal.

Florida kicks to Auburn. Robinson receives ball and puts it on Auburn's thirty-yard line. Harris skirts the end for seven yards; Newell around end for fifteen yards; Arnold gains three yards around end. Quarter ends with ball well into Florida's territory. Score—Auburn 14, Florida 0.

Third Period—Florida kicks to Auburn. Harris advances the ball fifteen yards. Newell around end, fumbles; Florida recovers ball and runs through an open field to a touchdown. Johnson kicks goal. Florida kicks to Auburn. Newell returns the ball ten yards; Harris goes around end for ten yards; Auburn penalized fifteen yards for holding. Auburn fumbles, and Baker, of Florida recovers ball and runs to touchdown. Johnson fails to kick goal.

Florida kicks to Auburn. Major receives ball behind goal line. Auburn's ball on twenty-yard line. Harris around end for five yards. Hart replaces Harris at right half. Ressijac through line for five yards; Newell gains eight yards around end; Hart through line for ten yards; Ressijac gains five yards outside of tackle. Florida penalized five yards, off side. Auburn attempts forward pass, but fails. Newell around end for fifteen yards; Major through center for ten yards; Ressijac through line for five yards. Quarter ends with ball in Auburn's possession on Florida's twelve yard line. Score—Auburn 14, Florida 13.

Fourth Period—Ressijac goes through line for touchdown. Major fails to kick goal.

Florida kicks to Auburn. Louisell returns ball to Auburn's thirty-yard line. Ressijac goes through line for ten yards; Major through center for twenty yards; Arnold gains ten yards around end; Ressijac goes through line for twelve yards. Majors plows through center for eighteen yards to a touchdown. Major kicks goal.

Florida kicks to Auburn. Ressijac returns ball five yards. Newell around end for five yards; Ressijac goes through for ten yards. Christopher replaces Hart. Christopher through line for five yards. Bidez replaces Ressijac. Auburn penalized fifteen yards for holding. Louisell punts. Florida gains ten yards around end. Florida fumbles, Auburn recovers ball on Florida's thirty-yard line. Auburn held for downs. Louisell punts. Florida gains fifteen yards around end. Florida attempts forward pass, but fails, Auburn intercepting the pass. Game ends with ball in Auburn's possession on Florida's twenty-five yard line. Final score—Auburn 27, Florida 13.

Esslinger replaced Pitts at center, and Morrow goes to full in place of Bidez in the fourth quarter.

Teams lined up as follows:

Florida	Auburn
Walker	L. E. Arnold
	Kearley
Sutton	L. G. Thigpen
Coursey	L. T. Louisell
Price	C. Pitts
	Esslinger
Baker	R. G. Burns
McCulloch	R. T. Lamb
Pounds	R. E. Robinson
Taylor	R. H. Harris, Hart
Capt. Buie	Q. B. Capt. Major
Johnson	F. B. Ressijac
	Bidez, Morrow
Tenney	L. H. Newell
	Christopher

Time of quarters, fifteen minutes; referee, Counselman, V. P. L.; umpire, Phillips, Sewanee; time-keepers, Hocker, of Florida, Gaum, of Auburn; head linesman, Locke, of Auburn.

BAND GOES TO SELMA

The A. P. I. Band left on Tuesday afternoon for a trip to Selma, where they will play in the parade of the State Confederate Veterans. They have also been engaged to give concerts at the Alabama Girls' Industrial School, at Montevallo, and Jackson College, at Marion. It includes the full military band of twenty-five pieces. The trip will last one week.

AUBURN AT THE FAIR

Auburn College has one of the largest and best exhibits at the Montgomery Fair that she has ever exhibited. In this display is work from the following departments: Mechanic Arts, Drafting rooms, Agriculture, Horticulture, Entomology, botanical, and plant pathology. In a number of cases the heads of the departments have gone to attend to the arrangements of the exhibits. The following men left on Thursday and will remain for several days during the fair: Dr. W. E. Hinds, Profs. E. F. Cauthen, Frederick Duggar, Thomas Fulam, L. W. Hawley, M. J. Funchess, H. M. Conolly, the field demonstrator for the horticultural department. Later in the week they will be joined by Miss D. M. Heard and Prof. Summers.

THREE FRATERNITY DANCES PAST WEEK

Round of Social Functions Keep the Fraternity Boys on the Qui Vive.

The old "Gym" in its days has had the privilege of seeing many attractive girls, but never a more charming bevy than gathered there last Friday night on the occasion of the Sigma Nu dance.

The Sigma Nu's proved themselves most successful hosts, and a most delightful evening was spent by the invited guests. Music was furnished by the Auburn Orchestra.

The dance was led by Mr. Rex Matthews, and those dancing to his whistle were, Misses Saffold, Gunnels, Gayle, Jackson, Harris, and Meyer, of Montgomery; Strouppa, of Atlanta; Reese, of Selma; Mildred George, of Tallassee; and Hudmon, Barnes, and Overstreet, of Opelika; Misses Bessie and Otis Thach, Anna Wilmore and Ruby Parrish, of Auburn.

Among the "old men" back for the occasion were Messrs. T. J. Miles, of Montgomery; W. E. Hudmon; of Opelika; Hunter McDuffie, of River Ridge, and T. C. Locke, of Montgomery.

The dance was chaperoned by Mesdames Driver, Thach, Wilmore, Buchanan, and Miss Whitaker.

The Pi K. A.'s opened their new colonial home on Gay Street with a house warming dance Saturday night.

The entire lower floor was thrown into one for dancing, and the spacious porches made a delightful resting place between times.

Punch was served in the den.

The dance was led by Mr. Shirley Harris, of Birmingham, and among those dancing were, Misses Meyer, Strouppa, Harris, George, Jackson, Gunnels, Gayle, Saffold, Reese, Overstreet, Bessie and Otis Thach, Olive Steadham, Parrish, and Wilmore.

The visiting Pi K. A.'s were Messrs. Major, of Birmingham; Avery, of Atlanta; Shackelford, of Montgomery, and Dave Rumph, of Marshallville, Ga.

The Thendaras were hosts Saturday morning at one of their delightful informal dances, given in honor of the house guests of the Sigma Nu and Pi K. A. Fraternities. The morning was all too soon whiled away on the Kappa Alpha dance floor to the strains of the Auburn Orchestra.

The Call of the Chemistry Student.

Oh come where the Cyanides silently flow,
And pour slowly over the oxides below,
When carbonic gases from each open door
Here mingle with phosphates in mixtures galore,
Form compounds with various others confused,
All ready to explode if the wrong thing is used.
Where "Benny" and "Tommy" are ready to show
Each "Freshie" and "Soph" the right
"Chem." to know.
With "P. P." and Adler to guard each retreat,
And catch the young chemist who may try to "beat."
There is no place where I had rather be
Nor such a profession—HO+C!

AUBURN, ALA, OCTOBER 19, 1912

The junior class has elected as their representatives on the Orange and Blue staff W. H. Wilson and J. C. Lee. We are glad to welcome these men and hope that they will prove valuable additions to the Board and not figureheads. We want them to put their shoulder to the wheel and work with the rest of us in trying to make the Orange and Blue better than ever before.

Fellows, Florida, the youngest team in the S. I. A. A., scored on us twice last Saturday! That will never do. You say, "Oh, well, what if they did? It was on flukes." Yes, but flukes are football and are no excuse whatever. Our team made the flukes. Now fellows, we all know that our team wasn't playing up to the standard last Saturday. But why? Maybe it was our fault. Maybe we haven't been supporting them as we should. Maybe we haven't been demanding as much of them as we ought. Now fellows, we are out for the Championship this year and to get it we must have a team backed by every man in Auburn. We must have a team that will do its best at all times because it knows we are behind it. So let us back our team as never before. Let us have larger and more enthusiastic mass meetings and more of them. Let us let the team know that they've got to win.

Now Clemson is to be here this afternoon and we want every man in Auburn to be out there and to root for the team as he never rooted before. Clemson must not score. Be there to help our team.

We were very favorably impressed last week with the warm and friendly feeling which the student body displayed toward the visiting Florida team. Of course, there was a little "ragging" done on both sides. That is to be expected and is all right. But we don't believe that a single offensive remark was made to the visitors. Auburn to a man, gave them the "glad hand," and that was right. They were our invited and honored guests and as such deserved the most courteous treatment. There was a time when a visiting football team was treated as the enemy of the whole student body, and was subjected to all manner of jeers and offensive remarks. But that day is past.

Now we recognize as never before the fact that all inter-collegiate games are contests held in a friendly spirit. Consequently we are making college athletics cleaner than ever before. That this spirit of fairness and good sportsmanship has taken a firm root in Auburn was admirably shown by the courteous treatment given the Floridians.

And we would like to congratulate the Florida boys on their excellent playing and on the cleanness of their game. We didn't expect them to score on us. In fact, we expected to beat them worse than we did Mercer. But we misjudged our men. They were right on the job all the time and when we fumbled the ball they had it and were gone before we knew what was happening. So we take off our hats to them. They scored on us, not once but twice. We are to have them with us again next year, and we hope that we will derive as much pleasure from their visit then as we have from the one just past.

TEMPTATION.

I dreamed. My very soul dreamed with me,
As by the roadside, tired and sore I lay.
Alone I was, and lost, and very hungry;
Thus had I traveled all the stormy day.

I dreamed. A being stood before me;
His great robe glittered like the purest gold;
His face was full of love and beamed with mercy;
Outstretched his arms: a voice, "Art thou cold?"

"Come thou, and in my cloak I'll fold thee
No more shall wind and rain bow down thy head.
Forevermore I'll hold thee to my bosom,
And nevermore shalt thou lack daily bread.

"The price?" I asked; "and what will thou demand
Of me, to give me all these things?"
Still as a marble statue there he stood,
And said, "His subjects are the king's.

"Bow down to me, and all are yours." I rose.
I touched his golden cloak; inside was brass.
The mask of love fell at his feet, and in its stead
There scowled at me a face that cut like glass.

"Get thee away!" I cried. "My soul detests thee!
Far rather would I starve in ice-lined cave
Than flourish as thy servant in great plenty.

BONFIRE AND NIGHTSHIRT PARADE

To the "rats" it had the impressiveness of a street fair; to the old-timers in college it had the effect of a joyous reminder of the glorious days of old and the forgotten triumphs over Alabama and Sewanee—did the Bonfire and Nightshirt parade of the Auburnites the night after the fall of Mercer.

In the late twilight the slumberous streets of the little village became scenes of activity in response to the calls of the "thundering drum and screaming fire" in the hands of "Flats" McFadden, George Moulton, and other manufacturers of Auburn Spirit.

Many boxes, several cords of wood and twelve gallons of kerosene served their last purpose on the Snake Dance Square at the depot, when the 7:48 train came to a halt in Auburn, and gave light for the parade, the snake dance, the display of enthusiasm by the "rats," and the speeches of Jimmie Webb, Lonnie Munger, "Dunk" Nolan, and others which followed.

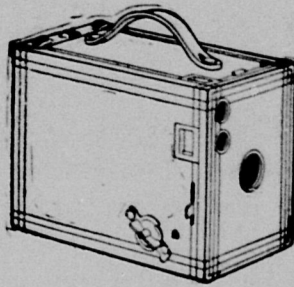

This was followed by the parade over town to the tune of "Old Auburn's Got the Ball" and "We'll Roll the Old Football Along." Speeches were extracted from many night-shirted pros. before the midnight hour.

Let's do it again, fellows! It's good for "Auburn Spirit." Varsity needs it!

AUBURN, ALA., OCTOBER 19, 1912

The junior class has elected as their representatives on the Orange and Blue staff W. H. Wilson and J. C. Lee. We are glad to welcome these men and hope that they will prove valuable additions to the Board and not figureheads. We want them to put their shoulder to the wheel and work with the rest of us in trying to make the Orange and Blue better than ever before.

Fellows, Florida, the youngest team in the S. I. A. A., scored on us twice last Saturday! That will never do. You say, "Oh, well, what if they did? It was on flukes." Yes, but flukes are football and are no excuse whatever. Our team made the flukes. Now fellows, we all know that our team wasn't playing up to the standard last Saturday. But why? Maybe it was our fault. Maybe we haven't been supporting them as we should. Maybe we haven't been demanding as much of them as we ought. Now fellows, we are out for the Championship this year and to get it we must have a team backed by every man in Auburn. We must have a team that will do its best at all times because it knows we are behind it. So let us back our team as never before. Let us have larger and more enthusiastic mass meetings and more of them. Let us let the team know that they've got to win.

Now Clemson is to be here this afternoon and we want every man in Auburn to be out there and to root for the team as he never rooted before. Clemson must not score. Be there to help our team.

We were very favorably impressed last week with the warm and friendly feeling which the student body displayed toward the visiting Florida team. Of course, there was a little "ragging" done on both sides. That is to be expected and is all right. But we don't believe that a single offensive remark was made to the visitors. Auburn to a man, gave them the "glad hand," and that was right. They were our invited and honored guests and as such deserved the most courteous treatment. There was a time when a visiting football team was treated as the enemy of the whole student body, and was subjected to all manner of jeers and offensive remarks. But that day is past.

Now we recognize as never before the fact that all inter-collegiate games are contests held in a friendly spirit. Consequently we are making college athletics cleaner than ever before. That this spirit of fairness and good sportsmanship has taken a firm root in Auburn was admirably shown by the courteous treatment given the Floridians.

And we would like to congratulate the Florida boys on their excellent playing and on the cleanness of their game. We didn't expect them to score on us. In fact, we expected to beat them worse than we did Mercer. But we misjudged our men. They were right on the job all the time and when we fumbled the ball they had it and were gone before we knew what was happening. So we take off our hats to them. They scored on us, not once but twice. We are to have them with us again next year, and we hope that we will derive as much pleasure from their visit then as we have from the one just past.

TEMPTATION.

I dreamed. My very soul dreamed with me,
As by the roadside, tired and sore I lay.
Alone I was, and lost, and very hungry;
Thus had I traveled all the stormy day.

I dreamed. A being stood before me;
His great robe glittered like the purest gold;
His face was full of love and beamed with mercy;
Outstretched his arms: a voice, "Art thou cold?"

"Come thou, and in my cloak I'll fold thee
No more shall wind and rain bow down thy head.
Forevermore I'll hold thee to my bosom,
And nevermore shalt thou lack daily bread.

"The price?" I asked; "and what will thou demand
Of me, to give me all these things?"
Still as a marble statue there he stood,
And said, "His subjects are the king's.

"Bow down to me, and all are yours." I rose.
I touched his golden cloak; inside was brass.
The mask of love fell at his feet, and in its stead
There scowled at me a face that cut like glass.

"Get thee away!" I cried. "My soul detests thee!
Far rather would I starve in ice-lined cave
Than flourish as thy servant in great plenty.
O, perish, Flesh! I have a soul to save."

Personal Paragraphs

Has anybody seen Dr. Messick's nat? He is planning to go to the Auburn-Vandy. game and would like to find it before Nov. 23. He remembers distinctly that he wore one to Atlanta last fall. So he ought to have it somewhere.

Mr. H. M. Conolly, of the Horticultural Department, has returned from North Alabama, where he was inspecting orchards.

Don't lose your spirit or 50c before the 19th, as we have got to come out of the game with Clemson victorious. You all know it takes the crowd and spirit to do it.

Mr. Julian Rice, of the Alex Rice Co., of Montgomery, and Mr. W. C. Stuckey, an expert cutter for Mr. Rice, are in town this week.

Besides the members of the Florida team, we were visited by Messrs. Christie, Cannon, and Grace, of the University of Florida.

We had in town this week representatives of three distinct fraternity jewelers: Mr. Nelson, with Edwards Holderman & Co., of Detroit. Mich.; Mr. Wichter, with The D. L. Auld Co., of Columbus, Ohio; and Mr. Whittaker, with A. H. Felting, Baltimore, Md. Each company displayed a very good line of jewelry.

The Rats were very agreeably surprised at the football game last Saturday to see Col. Patrick throw his cap on the ground, stamp his feet and yell for Auburn.

Daddy Locke and Tichenor, two of our old football stars, are in town, helping coach the football team in preparation for the big games to follow.

J. M. Moore, '12, who is now at the head of the Pig Club in Alabama, left Wednesday for Montgomery to attend the State fair.

J. J. Lovelace, H. G. Zeigler, and H. M. Brittain, three distinguished members of the senior general course, are spending the week in Montgomery, attending the fair "ones."

S. P. Poyner, class '11, general course, is studying law at the University of Alabama.

C. E. Alexander, a member of the original general course, '13, is studying law at the University of Alabama.

W. A. McIntosh, class '11, is principal of Blount County High School. This is Mr. McIntosh's second year there, and under his leadership the school has been a great success.

The world-famous Yodler, "Rinkles Major, '12, came back to Auburn to the dances and to see old friends. Mr. Major is now employed by the Crane Co., in Birmingham.

Mr. T. J. Miles, '11, was present at the dances last week. He is now in the real estate business in Montgomery.

Mr. D. C. Rumph, '12, made a short visit to Auburn this week to attend the dances.

Mr. Tom Flep Parker, of Birmingham, was the guest of the Pi K. A.'s at their dance last Saturday evening.

Mr. Roy Lilly, '12, was present at the dance Saturday evening.

Mr. Hudmon, '10, of Opelika, spent Friday evening here at the Sigma Nu dance.

Mr. "Butts" Avery, '12, came down to the Pi K. A. dance Saturday. He is now with the Roland Hall Co., of Atlanta.

Prof. and Mrs. C. S. Ridgeway have returned from a two weeks' visit to Mrs. Ridgeway's home in Baltimore.

Mr. N. C. Powell has just returned from a several days' visit to his grandfather, Dr. P. N. Cilley, at Lownsboro, who is very ill.

Dr. Hinds spoke before the men's meeting held last Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

The negative side on the subject, "Should Convict Labor be Employed on the Alabama State Roads?" won the debate held by the Agricultural Club, on Friday night. It was taken by Messrs. W. B. Tisdale, O. D. Howell, and Foster. The affirmative side was taken by Messrs. A. B. Hale, Praffman, and W. B. Barton. A lively discussion was held following the debate by members present. Papers were read by Dr. Wolf and Mr. G. B. Hawley.

H. Cary Hanlin has returned after a two weeks' stay in Atlanta. He spent most of his time up there in a hospital, and comes back to us much improved in health and ready to take up his class work and his duties as Major of the First Battalion and Editor-in-chief of the Glomerata.

It is thought that the course in Chemistry and Metallurgy will be changed next year to one in Chemical Engineering. It is to be hoped that this change will be effected as there is no good college in the South where a good course in Chemical Engineering is provided, and by doing so Auburn will be the first in the field. The advantages to the graduate are numerous.

Personal Paragraphs

Has anybody seen Dr. Messick's nat? He is planning to go to the Auburn-Vandy. game and would like to find it before Nov. 23. He remembers distinctly that he wore one to Atlanta last fall. So he ought to have it somewhere.

Mr. H. M. Conolly, of the Horticultural Department, has returned from North Alabama, where he was inspecting orchards.

Don't lose your spirit or 50c before the 19th, as we have got to come out of the game with Clemson victorious. You all know it takes the crowd and spirit to do it.

Mr. Julian Rice, of the Alex Rice Co., of Montgomery, and Mr. W. C. Stuckey, an expert cutter for Mr. Rice, are in town this week.

Besides the members of the Florida team, we were visited by Messrs. Christie, Cannon, and Grace, of the University of Florida.

We had in town this week representatives of three distinct fraternity jewelers: Mr. Nelson, with Edwards Holderman & Co., of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. Wichter, with The D. L. Auld Co., of Columbus, Ohio; and Mr. Whittaker, with A. H. Felting, Baltimore, Md. Each company displayed a very good line of jewelry.

The Rats were very agreeably surprised at the football game last Saturday to see Col. Patrick throw his cap on the ground, stamp his feet and yell for Auburn.

Daddy Locke and Tichenor, two of our old football stars, are in town, helping coach the football team in preparation for the big games to follow.

J. M. Moore, '12, who is now at the head of the Pig Club in Alabama, left Wednesday for Montgomery to attend the State fair.

J. J. Lovelace, H. G. Zeigler, and H. M. Brittain, three distinguished members of the senior general course, are spending the week in Montgomery, attending the fair "ones."

S. P. Poyner, class '11, general course, is studying law at the University of Alabama.

C. E. Alexander, a member of the original general course, '13, is studying law at the University of Alabama.

W. A. McIntosh, class '11, is principal of Blount County High School. This is Mr. McIntosh's second year there, and under his leadership the school has been a great success.

The world-famous Yodler, "Rinkles Major, '12, came back to Auburn to the dances and to see old friends. Mr. Major is now employed by the Crane Co., in Birmingham.

Mr. T. J. Miles, '11, was present at the dances last week. He is now in the real estate business in Montgomery.

Mr. D. C. Rumph, '12, made a short visit to Auburn this week to attend the dances.

Mr. Tom Flep Parker, of Birmingham, was the guest of the Pi K. A.'s at their dance last Saturday evening.

Mr. Roy Lilly, '12, was present at the dance Saturday evening.

Mr. Hudmon, '10, of Opelika, spent Friday evening here at the Sigma Nu dance.

Mr. "Butts" Avery, '12, came down to the Pi K. A. dance Saturday. He is now with the Roland Hall Co., of Atlanta.
